Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

April 11, 2006 LB 385

SENATOR CUDABACK: With no objection, so ordered. Senator Chambers. Is Senator Chambers present? Senator Chambers, are you on your way? Probably can't hear if he's in the hallway. Senator Johnson, are you authorized to handle this?

SENATOR JOHNSON: No...well, I technically can if you would like, because there's no disagreement on this.

SENATOR CUDABACK: You're recognized to open. When Senator Chambers gets here then he can take over. You're recognized.

SENATOR JOHNSON: What Senator Chambers' amendment does is to just define burglary in more detailed terms. And what he really intended with this would be is that to differentiate between a burglary, shall we say, of a tool shed as opposed to a place where there was intended to be dwelling, whether the person was home or not. In other words, if you...I think there was a case here a little while back where there was a child left at home and then it was burglarized. And so it was definitely meant to be a place for habitation and that's basically what I believe that he wanted to do. I have no objection to this and would recommend to the body that this be adopted.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Johnson. You opened on the Chambers amendment, FA677. Was there any discussion? There are no lights on. Senator Johnson...he waives closing. The question before the body is, shall FA677 be adopted to LB 385? All in favor vote aye; opposed, nay. Voting on adoption of the Chambers amendment. Have you all voted who care to? Record please, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 33 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of Senator Chambers' amendment.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The Chambers amendment has been adopted.

CLERK: Senator Johnson would move to amend, AM3087. (Legislative Journal page 1490.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Johnson to...
